Class 1 Canopy—We are delighted with the new canopy for Class 1 which was constructed this week. This will make an amazing improvement for the pupils in the early years. We would like to express our thanks for the large donation received which enabled this to happen.

Year 6 Trip — Class 4 pupils enjoyed a very interesting school trip to Birmingham yesterday as part of their crime and punishment topic. They visited the old police station on Steelhouse Lane and then the very impressive Magistrate's Court building where there were able to see a court room and sit in the Judge's chair and stand in 'the dock' and then the very historical Magistrate's Library. This was followed by a quick tour of Birmingham and then the train back.
