Class 1 News

We have been writers this week. Children have been writing their own Leaf Man story and thinking about poppies. I am so impressed with how well the children are doing in their reading and writing at the moment. Thank you to all parents supporting with the reading. The children receive a reading dojo every time they practise their book! We have had a few dojo's this week!

During Chuckle time, the children have been exploring timbre, beat and pitch whilst playing a variety of instruments! They are music maestros!! Sara, Sharon and Jen are very impressed with the children and how well they are progressing in the program. Keep up the good work !

Thank you so much to the parents uploading observations at home. It is very exciting to see what children get up to! Please don't hesitate to contact me with anything on dojo or email!

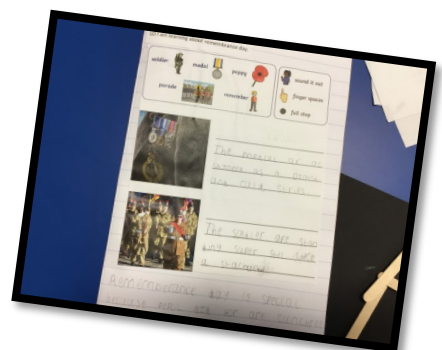

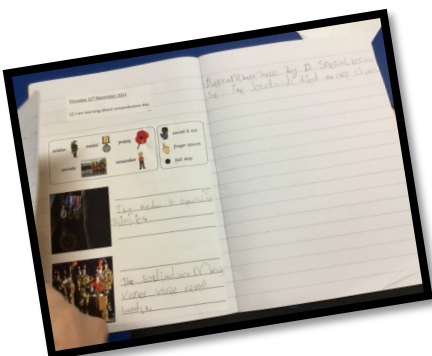

Class 2 news

Class 2 have worked incredibly hard this week!

This week has been our assessment week and all the children should be very proud of themselves. They all tried their hardest, had a go at every question and I am very proud of them.

This week has also been Remembrance Day and we have taken the time to think about and remember all the soldiers that fought in the war and gave their lives for us. The children produced some wonderful History work on this.

If you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact me via Dojo or email.

Class 3 News

I am so pleased with all the children this week as they have shown perseverance and dedication to their work. I can honestly say that I am extremely proud of them.

As a Reading School, we would like to ask you to ensure that you read with your children daily and sign their reading logs. Please ask them lots of questions about what they have read—comprehension skills are crucial at this age. You could ask them questions that help their inference skills using evidence provided by the author to draw logical conclusions or deductions, for example "Why does the character feel that way?" "What is the character thinking?" "What do you think is going to happen next?" Another extremely important skill is asking them to explain the meaning of words, can they think of a synonym or an antonym for a particular word. All these skills will help improve their writing, story ideas and all subjects across the curriculum.

Please see the back page of this newsletter for a wonderful poem written by Poppy and Connie.

If you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact Miss Bryant via Dojo or email.

Class 4 News

Class 4 have continued on with the wonderful work that they started last week!

This week has been assessment week and I have been incredibly proud of the determination and perseverance that the children have shown this week. They have all tried their hardest and they should be very proud of them selves.

On Thursday, we commemorated Remembrance Day and thought about all the soldiers that gave their lives. The children produced some wonderful artwork to help us to remember them.

If you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact me via Dojo or email.

The Poppy

The scarlet petals represent the blood,
And the middle is the bullet hole as black as coal,
The stem is where they used to walk,
This flower represents the ones who fought.

We roamed the fields and the snow,
We covered the battlefields long ago,
Our cousins are the white and purple.
Even now the poppies thrive,
We will remember the soldiers that saved our lives.
