School News:

Valentine Disco - We hope a lot of the pupils can come along after school today for the F@CES Valentine Disco and you all have a great time dancing!

Theme Meals - Chartwells are cooking delicious pancakes with some exciting toppings next Tuesday to celebrate Shrove Tuesday, this is a week early due to half term. On the Thursday after half term (2nd March) we will be celebrating World Book Day with a book themed menu which will include Winnie The Pooh Pork Sausage or Gruffalo Veggie Sausage served with vegetables and Pirate's gravy followed by Charlie's ice cream or Hungry Caterpillar fruit. The detailed menu is attached. Please order these meals in advance on ParentPay. Don't forget that all pupils in Reception and Years 1 & 2 are entitled to a free school meal everyday.

After School Club - Our very popular Gardening Club is starting again on Wednesday's after half term till 4.30pm. This is run by Irene and will involve planting and growing a variety of vegetables and flowers. This will be payable weekly on ParentPay. Please contact the school office to book this club.

School Meals - It helps us greatly if school dinners are ordered on ParentPay, this can be done up to 3 weeks in advance. For pupils in Reception and Years 1 & 2 no charge is made.

ParentPay - As we are approaching the end of this half term please log into ParentPay and pay all outstanding balances, if there are any issues please contact the school office.
