School News:

Wizard of Oz—Well done to Class 4 on their brilliant end of year production last night. We hope you all enjoyed the experience and we thought you were amazing.

Transition Week 2023—We have had a great week in school with all pupils having the whole week with their new classmates in their classrooms and with the teachers they will have next year. All pupils have settled in very well and we are now all looking forward to 6th September when the pupils return from their well earned summer break.

School Dinners—The school meals are going to be provided by Edwards & Ward from September and there will be an exciting new menu, We will have the same kitchen staff and the price of the meals will rise to £2.83 per day, but please note that all pupils in reception, years 1 & 2 and pupils in receipt of pupil premium are entitled to a free school meal everyday.

ParentPay—Please log into your ParentPay account and pay all outstanding balances before the summer break. If you have got any queries please contact the school office.

End of Term—This will be the last newsletter of this academic year. We would like to wish all our leavers good luck and best wishes as you start your next adventure. We hope you have enjoyed your time at Church Eaton and come back to visit us in the future.
