

Effective Target Setting

- Individual children's progress is tracked.
- Strengths and areas for development are identified and used to inform future planning and intervention.
- Data collected on a regular basis and shared with staff and children.
- Teaching and provision are revised regularly and adjusted in regard to pupil progress.
- Parents and carers are regularly updated on their child's progress.